

Nottingham School Grade 5, "I Have A Dream" Tree

Nottingham School 5th Graders Honor Martin Luther King, Jr and the Day

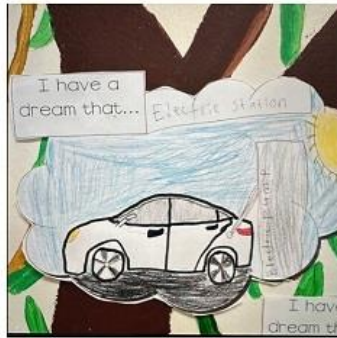

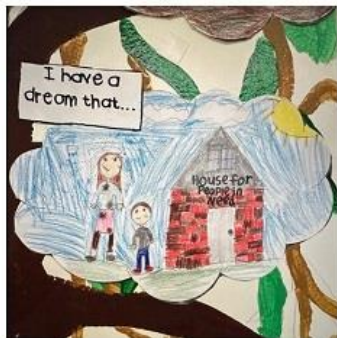

The Knightly News and Steve Soreff, MD

As the Knightly News writes "Martin Luther King Jr. Day is observed every year on the third Monday of January. Mr. King was an influential civil rights leader - best known for his work on racial equality and ending racial segregation in the United States. His life and achievements are remembered and celebrated on this day. Let's make the holiday more than just a day off and take time to reflect and take action on civil rights issues in our community, country, and across the globe."

This year the Fifth Grade created the "I Have A Dream" Tree. It nicely fits the school's Community Standards: KNIGHTS means being: Kind, Necessary, Inclusive, Grateful, Hardworking, Trustworthy, and Safe'. The Fifth Grader teachers are Laurie Ducharme and Sharon Schlosser. The fifth graders wrote messages for the tree which stands near the 5th Grade Classroom. Great job-and thanks.

The fifth graders are learning about Martin Luther King, Jr and working on messages for the tree.
