Steve Soreff, MD

As part of Nottingham's 300th Anniversary celebrations, the Nottingham Historical Society (NHS) will have a Cemetery Tour on Saturday, October 15, 2022, at 4 PM. The Tour features a gathering, talk, and tour of Joseph Cilley Burial Ground, 8 Ledge Farm Road just behind the Tray Sleeper home. For those attending, parking will be available in the field to the right of the Romeo Danais/Butler House. This is the field where people parked for the Annual Blueberry Pancake Breakfast.

From that parking area, folks will cross Ledge Farm and follow a short walk to Joseph Cilley Burial Ground. There at 4 PM, there will be a talk about the value, history, and importance of graveyards. Then, folks will tour the cemetery and learn about some of the people buried there. This site contains the grave of General Joseph Cilley, one of the Four Revolutionary Generals from Nottingham as well as other prominent residents. More details will follow.
