

Benefit Concert for the Nottingham Food Pantry
Sunday, Nov. 13, 3:00pm
Nottingham Community Church
106 Church Street, Nottingham, NH
 by Donation – refreshments served!

Steve Soreff
the MC with Wit
and Wisdom

Craig Werth
Award-Winning Songwriter &
Instrumentalist

Claire Burbank and Cassidy Green
Playwrights, with Popular Film Songs

Dan Raymond
and Gary Hume
Celtic and Blues

The Stolen Covers Duo
Theresa and
Rick Landry
Classic Rock

Tom Duffy
Lively
Sing-a-Longs

Nice & Naughty
Peg Chaffee and
Cheryl Sager
Superb
Originals &
Covers

Save the Date

Nottingham Food Bank Concert Nov. 13, 3 PM
Steve Soreff, MD

Yes, it is back! The Annual Nottingham Food Bank Concert returns to the Nottingham Community Church, 106 Church Street on Sunday, November 13, 2022, at 3 PM. Billed as Great Music for a Great Cause, it is better than ever. It included some of its old favorites and some new ones. There will be refreshments. Here is the line-up.

There will be the amazingly talented duo of Claire Burbank and Cassidy Green. They starred in Nottingham's Talents Salutes the 300th. There will be the female duo Nice & Naughty performing contemporary folk music playing stand-up bass, guitars, and pennywhistle, and singing exquisite harmonies. Nice & Naughty's original music speaks to all aspects of everyday life. There be the very talented and entertaining Tom Duffy. He offers lively engaging sing-a-long.

Speaking of duos, there will be the Stolen Covers Duo of Theresa and Rick Landry Playing Classic Rock Covers. There will be Craig Werth. He is a New Hampshire songwriter and multi-instrumentalist. He has also toured internationally with the highly and widely acclaimed Gaelic-American artist, Kyle Carey". Craig Werth is also the pastor of Nottingham's Community Church, He will weave together folk, acoustic, and Americana music together. Then there will be the team Dan Raymond and Gary Hume playing Celtic and Blues music. And, of course, it will be emceed by Steve Soreff with his wit and wisdom.