

The 300th Committee's Reading of the Declaration of Independence

Steve Soreff, MD

One of the great Fourth of July traditions nationally and until recently locally is the public reading of the Declaration of Independence on that day. The 300th Committee has revived that ritual. It will sponsor the reading at the Else Cilley Chapter, D.A.R. building on Nottingham Square, Monday, July 4, 2022, at 9 AM. It will be preceded by a free egg sandwich breakfast along with coffee and juices. There will be accompanying appropriate music.
