

Blueberry Bake Off Great Success

Steve Soreff, MD

The long heralded and much anticipated Blueberry Bake-Off was held at the Nottingham Fire & Rescue Station at 2 PM Sunday, July 24, 2022

Entries baked or non-baked goods were collected by 1:30 PM

The judges met behind closed doors. Their four judging criteria were the following: presentation, taste, use of the main ingredients, and creativity.

The judges left to right Alan Bershtein (Republican in NH House of Representatives), Bill Tappan, (Democrat running for NH House), and Nate Varney (A professional chef).

Meanwhile, the contestants waited for the judges' decisions.

And the winners were! 😊

Baked Goods - 1st Place, Cheryl Keim with her entry of "Century Blueberry Cobbler"- 2nd Place, Caroline Welch with her entry of Blueberry Pie- 3rd Place, Sandra Vilchok with her entry of Blueberry French Toast Casserole

Non-Baked Goods -1st Place, Sandra Vilchok with her entry of Backyard Blueberry Ice Cream - 2nd Place, Alexandra Neff with her entry of Lush Blueberry Lemon Slush, 3rd Place, Jaye and Paisley Vilchok with their entry of Fresh Blueberry Crispie Treats

Thanks to the Nottingham Fire & Rescue Association for the event, the judges for judging, the contestants for the marvelous creations, and all those who simply came to eat, participate, and share the experience.

Blueberry Bakeoff Contest

When: Sunday 24 July 2022 @ 2 PM

Where: Nottingham Fire-Rescue Department

Contest Specifications:

- 2 Categories (BAKED / NON-BAKED GOODS)
- CASH PRIZES for the top 3 entrants in each category.
- Entries are accepted up to 5pm on Friday, July 22nd

