

The Holiday Parade and Craft Workshop, December 3, 2022

Kortney Dorow Duball and Steve Soreff, MD

Kortney Dorow Duball, the Director of the Recreation Department announces “The Recreation Department is having the annual Holiday Parade and Craft Workshop on December 3rd at 10:00 am! Find a spot to watch the parade around the town center at the Town Hall, Library, Liars Paradise, etc. After the end of the parade come to join us for our craft workshop located in the Town Hall Gym. There will be crafts available to build gifts for your family and friends or even to decorate your home for the holiday season! There will be candle-making for all ages, ornament crafts, a hot cocoa bar, and more from Nottingham community groups! Please bring cash, some crafts will have a small fee! This is an amazing opportunity to get into the holiday spirit and celebrate with Nottingham friends and families, we can’t wait to see you.

Want to be in the parade? Please register online and fill out a form to participate through our website! “

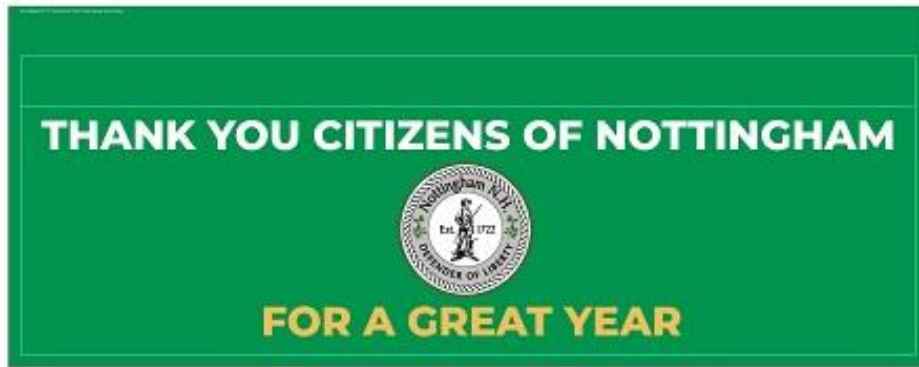

The parade starts at the Town Hall at 10 AM. It proceeds east on NH Route 152, turns right on Church Street, takes a second right on NH Route 156, rejoins Route 152, and finishes at the Town Hall.

Then,

The 2018 Holiday Parade

Spoiler alert. This is last one of 300th Committee's year-long events.

One of the 300th banners in the Holiday Parade