The Return of the Scarecrows

Steve Soreff, MD

Yes, it is time for Nottingham Women Club's (NWC) annual Scarecrow Contest. And, there is a $100 cash prize again this year! However, NWC understands that families may be struggling so, this year they are giving them away! (1 per address). More scarecrow kits are available for $25 or by donations. This year's optional theme: These Are Some of Our Favorite Thing. As the NWC says. "You can view scarecrows and fill out our google form to snag your scarecrow here. And there are over 20 scare-heads to select from.

The following are the contest details. "Scarecrow kit orders can be placed online between September 1st through October 14th, and will be delivered to your home. Or If you prefer to pick one up in person, they will be at the Community Center Soccer Fields every Saturday (during the season) 10 Am -12:30 PM for pre-order pickup or at the Town Picnic on September 17, 2022. "

One of the entries for 2020

Here is how to participate. Step 1: Register and choose a scarecrow kit (contains custom scarecrow head/paint your own and display stake) OR reuse a kit from a previous year and register it! Step 2: Stuff and decorate your own scarecrow, then proudly display your scarecrow outside! Step 3: Upload a picture of your scarecrow with your location in the description to the "NWC Scarecrow Fundraiser Contest" Facebook page or send it to nottingham.womensclub@gmail.com by October 23rd.

As for voting, it occurs between October 24 and October 29, 2022 The winner will be announced on October 29.

In addition, the NWC continues to fulfill its mission.” This club provides a focus for the woman interested in social service, civic activities and fellowship with other women. With continued hard work and careful investment, we have been able to provide worthwhile scholarships to deserving students.” It does so by providing Nottingham residents graduating from high school in 2023 scholarship money for first-year college/university students. Students who want to apply for these funds may get applications from the guidance directors at either Coe-Brown Northwood Academy, Dover High School, or Pinkerton Academy. The New Hampshire Charitable Foundation actually reviews the applications and determines who gets the scholarships.

It is time to get and display a scarecrow. BOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
