

Benefit Concert for the Nottingham Food Pantry
Sunday, Nov. 13, 3:00pm
Nottingham Community Church
106 Church Street, Nottingham, NH
 by Donation – refreshments served!

Steve Soreff
 the MC with Wit and Wisdom

Craig Werth
 Award-Winning Songwriter & Instrumentalist

Claire Burbank and Cassidy Green
 Playwrights, with Popular Film Songs

Dan Raymond and Gary Hume
 Celtic and Blues

The Stolen Covers Duo
 Theresa and Rick Landry
 Classic Rock

Tom Duffy
 Lively Sing-a-Longs

Nice & Naughty
 Peg Chaffee and Cheryl Sager
 Superb Originals & Covers

Food Pantry Concert Nov. 13, 3 PM

Steve Soreff, MD

The Annual Nottingham Food Pantry Concert returns to the Nottingham Community Church, 106 Church Street on Sunday, November 13, 2022, at 3 PM. Billed as Great Music for a Great Cause, it is better than ever. It included some of its old favorite musicians and some new ones. There will be refreshments. Here is the line-up.

Claire Burbank and Cassidy Green, directors of the play, The Town Meeting

There is the amazingly talented duo of Claire Burbank and Cassidy Green, performing popular film songs. Yes, there is Claire who will sing the National Anthem at the Veterans Day ceremony. November 11. And there is Cassidy Green. Cassidy in her sophomore year at Coe-Brown Along with Claire co-directed the play, The Town Meeting. She has played many roles in numerous productions including Annie in Annie, an Oomphloomph in Willie Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, the Princess in The Little Mermaid, and a tree in Into the Woods. She has attended and is now part of Nottingham's Recreation Department's summer drama camp staff. The duet sang Come to Your Senses from Tick Tick Boom written by Jonathan Larson and Queen's Somebody to Love. The two thrilled the audience with their sparkling performance in Nottingham's Talents Salutes the 300th.

Steve Soreff the MC with Wit and Wisdom

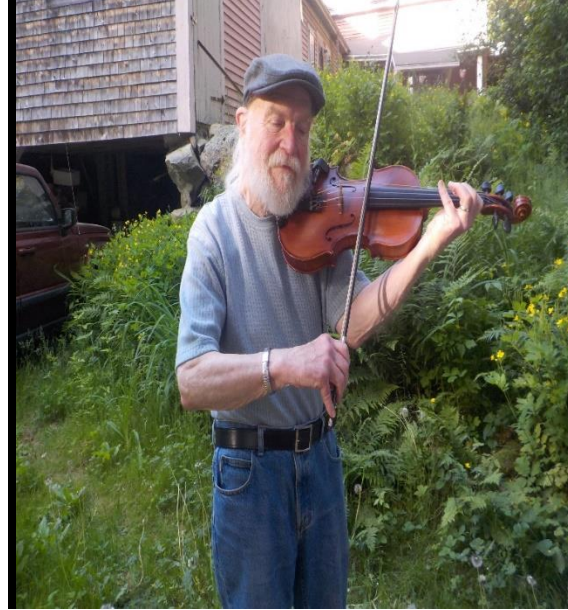

Steve Soreff will emcee the cast of brilliant and creative performers.

Craig Werth

The next act was Craig Werth. He is New Hampshire songwriter and multi-instrumentalist. "After two decades of performing part-time and regionally, Craig served as the full-time accompanist/co-arranger for three-time Juno Award winner David Francey, starting in the fall of 2006. He co-produced Francey's 'Right of Passage' which won the best album Juno. He toured heavily for nearly 5 years, showcased by David for his own writing and performance skills. With the release of his folk-DJ charting album of original songs, 'The Spokes Man', Craig returned to the stage much more as a solo artist. He has also toured internationally with the highly and widely acclaimed Gaelic-Americana artist, Kyle Carey". Craig Werth is also the pastor of Nottingham's Community Church, He wove folk, acoustic, and Americana music together and an original sang praising the people of Nottingham.

The team of Dan Raymond and Gary Hume

They call themselves the Aging Strings". Here is their story. Retirees Gary Hume (formerly NH State Archaeologist) and Dan Raymond (formerly UNH Theater Instructor), both from Nottingham, play 5-string fiddle and guitar arrangements of tunes from several musical genres, including Scottish Traditional and American Blues.

Stolen Covers Duo of Theresa and Rick Landry Playing Classic Rock Covers

Then there was another duo. Stolen Covers Duo consisting of Theresa and Rick Landry. They sang and played the history of classic rock songs from the 60's, 70's, 80's, 90's, 00's and 10's. These included Johnny Be Good, I'm a Believer, Joy to the World, You Were Meant for Me, and Ran Away at the "Nottingham's Talents Salutes the 300th," on Tuesday, July 16, 2022.

Tom Duffy

There be the very talented and entertaining Tom Duffy. A thirty Year resident of Nottingham, Tom Duffy might be best known leading the Effengees, a local classic Rock Band or playing trumpet in parades. He also plays Ukulele with the Southern NH Ukulele Group at charity events, nursing homes, and local hospitals. You might hear him at an open mic night in the area. He offers a lively engaging sing-a-long.

Left Cheryl Sager and right Peg Chaffee

There will be the female duo Nice & Naughty performing contemporary folk music playing stand-up bass, guitars, and pennywhistle, and singing exquisite harmonies. Nice & Naughty's original music speaks to all aspects of everyday life. The female duo Nice & Naughty perform contemporary folk music playing stand-up bass, guitars, pennywhistle, and singing exquisite harmonies. Sometimes irreverent, but never rude, they're sure to appeal to all audiences

The concert concludes with everyone-performers and the audience singing together.

Nottingham Food Pantry getting ready for its monthly Thursday deliveries.

Come out and join us for this wonderful afternoon of Great Music for a Great Cause for the Nottingham Food Pantry.